The Untried City Democracy Meet in Convention.

D. P. Rowland Withdraws and Nominates Harrington for Sheriff.

The Outlook Before the Meeting—W. H. Swift Selected as Permanent Chairman—The Committee and Their Reports—Henry Harrington Nominated for Sheriff, Wm. Horner for Circuit Judge and J. G. Woerner for Probate Judge by Acclamation—J. C. Normile Nominated for Judge of the Criminal Court Over Judges Valiant and Van Wagoner—E. A. Noonan Secures the Nomination for Judge of the Third Circuit—Phillip H. Zepp Nominated for Clerk of the Circuit Court.

At 10 o'clock this morning the disciples of Jacksonian Democracy and Jeffersonian simplicity began assembling in the Mercantile Library Hall in attendance upon the Democratic City Convention for the nomination of State officers. The personnel of the convention, although slightly hibernian, was an improvement upon the Teutonic assemblage which selected the Republican ticket last week at Central Turner Hall. The usual freemasonry of pure untried Democracy existed in the relations between candidate and delegate and the oft-repeated scene of the aristocratic and the plebeian slouch has been added in friendly intercourse, grace the bars of the adjacent state parlors.

Col. J. C. Normile was the first real Simon-pure candidate who appeared upon the ground. He mixed freely with the crowd, and, after what was called "casual inquiry" into the situation, announced to his friends that he thought there was no doubt about his nomination on the first ballot. In the opinion of prominent ward politicians the slate published in yesterday's Post-Dispatch will be carried without a break. Should there be chance by a sponge applied to some of the names on the slate it is believed that Normile will be a sufferer, though it is difficult to figure out the defeat of any of the Harringtons, the combination, in which Normile is an influential factor. Van Wagoner's friends admit that their candidate can be nominated only by a scratch of the rarest good luck, while the Valiant men put a bold face on the matter and like Blaine, "claim everything," including not a few of Normile's votes.

The balance of the slate is apparently as sound as when first rigged up, and its friends claim that it will be carried with a whoop. Rowland was unquestionably defeated at yesterday's primaries, and Harrington has a sure grip on the nomination. Joe Temple will not find it quite so easy to beat Tom Farrelly. Tom was at the corners this morning fraternizing with the delegates who will make or mar his fortunes to-day, and he, too, thinks that he will be successful. The preponderance of opinion, however, appears to favor Temple. Joe is backed by the powerful Harrington crowd, and unless a string breaks somewhere his name will grace the ticket. The situation to-day is little changed from last night, when everything was on the basis of Harrington and Temple. The Zepp delegates, it is said, will favor this combination and Dr. Samuel Frazer has also been let in on the ground floor. There was considerable talk before the convention met of the withdrawal of Dr. Albraudt, Frazer's strongest opponent for Coroner.

The revised slate, calculated on the returns of yesterday's primaries, is as follows: Circuit Judge—Wm. Horner. Criminal Judge—J. C. Normile. Probate Judge—Gabriel Woerner. Judge of Court of Criminal Correction—E. A. Noonan. Circuit Clerk—Phillip Zepp. Criminal Clerk—Pat Stated. Clerk of Court of Criminal Correction—Michael Keneffick. Prosecuting Attorney, Court of Criminal Correction—Hob Claiborne. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney—Bernard Dierkes. Coroner—Dr. Samuel Frazer.

Rowland Withdraws. During the recess, Temporary Secretary Bob Soode bustled himself in perfecting an arrangement to secure harmonious action on the nomination for sheriff, deprecating that D. P. Rowland's chances of success were dissipated at yesterday's primaries, his friends induced him to consent to withdraw a candidate. Goode went one step farther, convincing the idea that it would redound to Rowland's benefit to give some practical illustration of the fact that to ill will existed between the two candidates, he called on Harrington and suggested that Harrington request Rowland to place him in nomination. This Harrington consented to do, and Rowland being willing, it was agreed that when the First Ward was called for nominations, Rowland should place his name before the convention, and should place Mr. Harrington's name before the convention, and should place Mr. Harrington's name before the convention, and should place Mr. Harrington's name before the convention.

THE CONVENTION. Hos. K. Skinker Chosen Temporary Chairman—The Committee and Proceedings. At 11 o'clock Chairman Harry Keefe of the Democratic Central Committee called the convention to order and appointed Tom Ward of the Fourteenth and Jim Carroll of the Twelfth to see that the delegates took their proper seats. The work of seating the convention occupied several minutes as the delegates lingered in the usages to get in a final "pointer" on the candidates. When order was secured Chairman Keefe announced the selection of Mr. Thos. K. Skinker for temporary chairman and Dr. W. Goode for temporary secretary. On assuming the chair Mr. Skinker said that his selection was a matter of harmony, as he was one of the minority delegation for his ward. He urged the convention to remember that all were working for a common cause, to fill nomination and to elect the best men. The ticket was scanned name by name by the voters, and if they found to be state, the party was enabled to maintain the control of the city. The conclusion of the chairman's address secretary Keefe read the list of delegates furnished by the Central Committee, but before the completion it was referred to the Committee on Credentials. Mr. Terry then offered contest claims from the Twenty-fourth Ward. Dr. Lutz moved a call of wards for the purpose of naming members of the various committees. On further motion of Dr. Lutz, Thirteenth wards presenting contested claims were not allowed to name committee members.

The committees were then reported and announced as follows:

At 1:30 this afternoon Chairman Skinker called the convention to order, and, at the suggestion of the Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, requested the members of that committee to retire to their rooms for further consideration of the report. The Committee on Resolutions notified the Chairman that the committee would be ready to submit the platform for an hour.

Chairman J. J. Butler of the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported as follows: To the Chairman and Members of the Democratic City Convention of the City of St. Louis: Your Committee on Permanent Organization beg leave to offer the following report: For permanent officers of the convention we recommend as follows: Permanent Chairman, J. J. Butler; Vice-President, J. C. Normile; Secretary, J. G. Woerner; Recording Secretary, J. C. Normile; Treasurer, J. G. Woerner; and Clerks, J. C. Normile and J. G. Woerner.

For order of business, your committee recommend that nominations be made as follows: Sheriff, Judge of Circuit Court, Judge of Probate Court, Judge of Criminal Court, Clerk of Circuit Court, Clerk of Criminal Court, Clerk of Court of Criminal Correction, Recorder of Deeds, Prosecuting Attorney, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Coroner, Member of Board of Health, and Member of Board of Public Safety. Your committee recommend that after a vote has been taken on the above, the slate shall be changed in said vote until the succeeding ballot.

We further recommend that a majority of all votes cast be required to nominate.

On motion of Delegate Thos. Hennessy of the Twelfth Ward, the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow night. On motion of Delegate Thos. Hennessy of the Twelfth Ward, the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow night. On motion of Delegate Thos. Hennessy of the Twelfth Ward, the convention adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow night.

When the First Ward was called Mr. Rowland rose. He said: "I may appear a little late, but I am here to represent the First Ward, but, being a Democrat, I am not here to represent the city. As you all know, your humble servant was a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff, but finding that harmony could be obtained by withdrawing, I retired. In favor of Mr. Harrington, I have given my nomination for the position of Sheriff Mr. Harrington, and I move that it be so declared."

Mr. Rowland then moved that the nomination of Mr. Harrington stand the claims of the convention. The Chair put the motion and Mr. Harrington was nominated by acclamation. The Chair put the motion and Mr. Harrington was nominated by acclamation. The Chair put the motion and Mr. Harrington was nominated by acclamation.

JUDGE OF THE CRIMINAL COURT.

When this order was reached Col. Dave Armstrong of the Second Ward arose and read a short speech. He said that he gave him the pleasure to name a well-known and capable man for the administration of the laws in the Criminal Court and named Col. J. C. Normile as that man. Col. Armstrong stated that he was a member of the court in 1892, and in this number twenty-eight years he had seen the court grow from a small court to a large court, and he urged the selection of such a bold, determined and active man as Col. Normile.

ing result: The new Catholic Church at Webster is now a settled thing. To-day Mr. M. I. Ryan of Webster, representing a committee of three, called on Archbishop Kenrick with a petition from fifty heads of families, representing 250 souls, guaranteeing the erection of a plain, neat church, to cost, including ground, not over $5,000. The Archbishop granted the petition, but said that the boundaries. As there is a church now at Kirkwood on the west and at Benson on the east, the parish will be formed as to not to conflict with these, and will take Webster, South Webster, Old Orchard and Fairview. The formation of the new parish will be begun at once.

A SERIOUS CHANGE. Mary Weber's Mother and Sister Give Singular Information. About a month ago a warrant was issued charging a young man with the seduction of Miss Mary Weber of 418 Penrose street, but when the case was called it was dismissed for want of prosecution. This afternoon the mother and sister of the girl and the girl herself appeared and stated she had died last night and as they thought of medical aid by a physician, a physical claim for improper purposes. Two weeks ago the girl was taken ill and died, her health having steadily declined since she was taken to the hospital. The coroner said he could not find any cause of death, but a physician called to the cause of the death.

Col. Normile was declared the nominee unanimously. Col. Normile was called forward and thanked the convention in a few heartfelt words. When the Second Ward was called Mr. C. M. Noonan, the present incumbent. The nomination was endorsed by the Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first, WINNING WICHITA.

THE KANSAS WONDER—A CITY OF MAGNIFICENT BUSINESS BLOCKS.

Elegant Residences, Stately Churches and Costly Educational Institutions—A Question for St. Louis Merchants.

Special Correspondence of the Post-Dispatch.
WICHITA, September 30.—Kansas City makes great boast of being the "Gateway to Kansas." If this is so, Wichita people have evidently stolen a march on the good citizens of Kansas City and have carried off the gate and will soon be back after the gate-posts. Kansas can boast of not only being the garden spot of the Union, but of having one of the great cities of the West.

To those who have never yet seen this great country, the stories that a few years ago were told, of the horrors of savage butchery that were of daily occurrence, when defenseless women and innocent children were killed by roving bands of warlike savages, and the life of the business man or farmer was safe only so long as it was the pleasure of "the festive cowboy," the present seems a tale of fiction that reads very smoothly, but is to be taken with due allowance as regards its truth. But the facts exist and speak for themselves.

The early history of Wichita is both a romantic and wonderful one. It was named after a band of Indians called Wichitas, who came into the Arkansas valley in 1834 and settled along the Little Arkansas River. In 1858 a chartered company was formed at Topeka, and the members caused a survey and plat of the town to be made. Just about this time the cholera broke out, and many a poor Indian found himself transported to the "happy hunting grounds" without his wants or wishes having been consulted by the "Great Spirit." In 1872, Wichita became the Kansas headquarters for the Texas cattle trade, and just about the liveliest town in the West was right here. The devil opened a branch office here, and the cowboys and Mexicans made short work of any tenderfoot who fell into their hands. The old saying of "A man for breakfast" was here a reality, as not a day passed that one or more of the human race did not "pass in his checks," and he was planted with his head on money toward like water, and vice versa. Gradually the better elements of the population crowded the lower classes out of their pathway, and soon the riotous scenes that had so long been a feature, gave place to the peace and quiet that characterizes our older cities. In 1881, Wichita had a population of about 6,000. Until 1883 there was not much growth, but during that year Wichita shook herself loose from the drowsiness of the past and started forth on the road to future greatness. Since that time the growth of the city has been phenomenal. In 1883, 473 new buildings were erected. In 1884 this number was greatly increased, and this year, from May up to the present time, over six hundred buildings have been erected with many more now under way. Mansions that cost $20,000 to $40,000, are seen on all sides of the residence portion of the city, and those who have built there can well afford to do so, for probably there is not a city in the West where the fickle goddess Fortune has been more lavish of her favors. In 1880 the assessed valuation of city property was $891,102. In 1886 official returns show a total of $4,114,718, with the assessment made on a one-fifth basis.

At the commencement of the school year for 1887, over 1,400 new pupils applied for admission to the public schools. There are nine school buildings now erected and occupied, each one of them very complete and substantial, and two more are under course of erection. Twenty churches offer spiritual instruction and consolation to the weary pilgrim, four colleges, prominent among which is the Southwestern Business College, the finest business school in the West, seven railroad outfits, and more being built, a gaslight company, water works, two electric light companies, three daily papers, six weekly papers, twenty miles of street railway, six first-class banks with from $50,000 to $200,000 capital stock each, and several Eastern loan agencies representing a combined capital of over $2,000,000. The number of wholesale houses and manufacturing establishments foot up a grand total of 61.

This does not include the various retail establishments, whose name is legion. Mr. Kohn, the New York merchant prince, who, when the recent Charleston earthquake occurred drew his check for $200,000 to start a new city, when the buildings around him were crumbling on every hand, has a guiding hand in the affairs of Wichita's finances. It is due to the nerve and pluck displayed by just such men that this city has taken such remarkable strides toward wealth and renown. Perhaps no city west of Kansas City is better fixed as regards daily newspapers. The Wichita Eagle and the Daily Beacon are first-class in every respect and vie with each other as to which shall give the most complete news of the day. One thing about all others, however, Wichita does need, and that is that Uncle Sam look into the present post-office accommodations as they exist here at present. It is a shame that a city which has nearly 23,000 inhabitants has to put up with such a state of affairs as exist here at present. The Post-office is left to run itself, as it were, and your correspondent was informed that the present Postmaster has been inside the office for over a year. It seems almost incredible, but something is evidently wrong when your correspondent found a drop letter taking forty-eight hours to come back to his hands again.

SPRINGWICK COUNTY. That surrounds the "Western Wonder," was sixteen years ago a wild, unimproved plain. To-day it is developed into fruitful and productive farms, equalled by few and surpassed by none in the United States. The growth of the county has been almost as rapid as that of her county-seat, Wichita, and thus she gives a sanction to her capital. The very best class of farmers have settled here and the excellent qualities of the soil have been taken advantage of by them, and crops are raised here that would cause the Illinois or Indiana farmer to open his eyes with wonder. While in some parts of the State the farmer complained greatly of drought, in Sedgewick County there was but small cause for complaint and good crops are the general rule. And for fruit—what a country! Such apples, such grapes, cherries and plums, and, last, but not least, such wonderful watermelons. The latter are a drug on the market and the writer saw them sold all the way from one to three for a nickel. And grow! Well, reader, just think of a watermelon weighing seventy-seven pounds and selling for 6 cents. Everything that is raised in this county seems to grow on the same large scale, and as a consequence products are cheap, but at the same time the yield is so abundant that the farmer receives an excellent return financially for his labors. No wonder Wichita prospers. Her surrounding country unequalled by any other portion of the State, and her citizens a unit on all questions that pertain to her future welfare, give her a pre-eminence situation. A good many seem to think that Wichita cannot long continue to grow as she has in the past, but the fallacy of this idea can be seen when one stops to see what a vast territory is dependent on this city for supplies. Being situated just about half way between Denver and Kansas City, she is the natural depot of supplies for a radius of 150 miles of surrounding country, and on the south draws from the entire Indian Territory. Wichita naturally belongs to St. Louis merchants, and they should look more carefully after their interests in this direction. The query that met your correspondent from a number of the merchants here was, "Why don't you St. Louis merchants send more druggists out here? Chicago and Kansas City are in here all the time, but we would like to trade with your merchants if they would look after us out here and get us good rates on our merchandise." Is it about time that St. Louis shook off the mantle of inactivity and roused herself to the importance of stopping the discrimination that is a matter of daily occurrence as practiced against her by the railroads and in favor of Kansas City and Chicago? The St. Louis & San Francisco offers a direct line to this entire territory, and with such a growing country as this holding out inducements to the wholesale trade of St. Louis, the merchants of Wichita ought never to have to say: "Why don't St. Louis merchants send more druggists out here?" Within the next five years this city will, without a doubt, show a population of over 25,000 inhabitants, and St. Louis can reap the lion's share of the trade of this section of country if her merchants will only put forth the requisite efforts.

One of the first symptoms of a severe bilious attack is sour stomach. If taken in time Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Pills will check and perhaps prevent a serious illness.

The Price Movement Association met last evening and elected the following officers: D. Graham Frost, President; George Baker, Treasurer; C. A. De France, Secretary.

A FAIR WEEK FEATURE.

The Autumnal Consumption of Summer Desires—The Crowds and the Hotels.

There is one point of advantage in the autumnal carnival at St. Louis that has never been noted. It is an advantage to the city to the country at large, and particularly to two individuals. Summer in the fields is no less a season of counting than summer at the fashionable sea-side. And the consumption as devoutly wished for in the yellowing fields as by the surging sea comes after harvest. It is so natural in settling the arrangements for the future to fix a date for a wedding that will allow a tour to glittering St. Louis at a time when the bride wears her festal robes. And as every man has an affection for matters connected with his "shop," the fair appeals to your St. Louis merchants send more druggists out here? Chicago and Kansas City are in here all the time, but we would like to trade with your merchants if they would look after us out here and get us good rates on our merchandise." Is it about time that St. Louis shook off the mantle of inactivity and roused herself to the importance of stopping the discrimination that is a matter of daily occurrence as practiced against her by the railroads and in favor of Kansas City and Chicago? The St. Louis & San Francisco offers a direct line to this entire territory, and with such a growing country as this holding out inducements to the wholesale trade of St. Louis, the merchants of Wichita ought never to have to say: "Why don't St. Louis merchants send more druggists out here?" watchers. Registers are filled at tremendous rates. The hotels of the St. James also registered yesterday, as that hotel did, eight pages of names, and that was only the van guard. To-day before 9 o'clock the Southern was on its sixth page, the Lindell was finishing the fifth and Hurst's had four brimming full. The Planters was doing a greater business than it has commanded since the change to the European plan. The small hotels were bleeding full. Restaurant business began to brighten, but still lacked the volume anticipated by owners, but this is sure to come.

INSURANCE DIFFERENTIALS.

The Texas Lines Asked to Allow the Steamship Lines Premiums.

The meeting of the Texas Traffic Association and the steamship lines is in session at the Southern to-day. The most important question under consideration is the question of tolerating a differential for insurance in favor of the steamship lines running from Galveston and New Orleans to the Atlantic seaboard. As the railroads are inclined to make some concessions rather than have a rate war, it is generally understood that an arrangement will be arrived at either by to-night or tomorrow noon. After this meeting the Texas Traffic Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at which a number of minor but very important details to the railroads will be discussed. The meetings are liable to continue until Friday or Saturday as all lines are represented.

LAD OUT THE BUGLAR.

How a Butte Miner Contrived a Fatal Burglar Trap.

CHICAGO, October 5.—A Times special from Fort Keogh, Mont., says: A Butte miner named W. P. Emery fixed up a burglar trap in his cabin Saturday, and then went off prospecting. He securely locked the cabin, but arranged the interior that an entrance would disturb a combination setting off a heavy charge of dynamite. When he returned from the mountains he found that a terrible explosion had taken place. The burglar had entered through a window. The door was torn up and splintered and the cabin generally badly wrecked. The interior was spattered with blood, there was blood on the door, blood on the walls; a lot of stone in one corner was covered with blood; the window sill was stained red, and just inside the room some three feet from the window, was a pool as if a quart or more of blood had oozed from the wound of some person who had fallen there. Search was made and the would-be burglar found near by. He was in a frightful condition. His skull was badly fractured, the top of his head being nearly blown off. He was barely conscious and gave the name of Harris. He cannot survive.

Those who have suffered for years with sluggish, inactive condition of the liver derive permanent relief from Collins' Ague Cure, with a complete restoration of entire and healthy action of the bodily functions. All druggists sell it.

Sergt. Watkins Resigns.

Sergt. Frank Watkins has sent his resignation to the Police Board. Watkins is one of the oldest and most popular members of the force, and his resignation will be a matter of general regret. He has secured a good position with S. P. Keyes, the liverman at 11th St. and Avenue, and it was for this reason he resigned. Watkins was appointed a patrolman in 1868, was made a sergeant in 1873 and was promoted to Chief of Detectives in 1881, which position he held until 1883, when, owing to a change in the board, he was reduced again to the sergeantcy.
